

Tax Free Benefit which you can claim without any tax implication

Employees of Limited company including directors and company secretary can spend on summer Outings, Christmas functions or other functions up to £150 per head each year including travel accommodation and VAT.

Why not use this benefit for a short break on company's money? This is a statutory benefit and no tax payable on this benefit

